

BALTIC CUP ' AMBER STONE '

Gdańsk, 25-27.10.2013

Since the ancient times amber was considered as the gold of the north. Natural amber from Gdańsk and the Vistula's delta stand out among the others especially with the variety of different kinds. In the first century emperor Neron ordered to organize a first expedition for amber, thereby forming a so-called "Amber Trail". This development caused Gdańsk to really quickly become a centre of trade and culture.

Referring to the tradition of our city, historically associated with amber, we invite you to the tournament Baltic Cup "Amber Stone", where we guarantee an unforgettable atmosphere, great awards and the excitement of competition at the highest level!
